Helping Hand Center
Annual Gala

Tax Deductions

All purchases and donations pertaining to the Helping Hand Center Annual Gala are tax deductible to the extent allowed by law. All registrants will receive a written summary of purchases and donations for tax reporting purposes following the event.

Grand Raffle & Silent Auction

The winners of the Grand Raffle or any silent auction item need not be present at the event.

Photo Release

Attendance at the Helping Hand Center Annual Gala implies consent to release images/video/audio and/or interviews, as well as the names of attendees, to be used by Helping Hand Center to the public and media in print or digital/electronic formats. Additionally, the images or video may be used in the future for marketing purposes by Helping Hand Center, including print collateral, website, media, or the website of an authorized Helping Hand Center agent or partner to support the mission of the agency and where it may be viewed by the general public. Attendees may revoke this consent, in writing, at any time.

Hold Harmless

Attendees voluntarily waive, release and hold harmless Helping Hand Center, its Board of Directors, officers, employees, agents, and volunteers from any and all claims, causes of action, and damages for bodily injury or death that they may suffer as a result of, or in any manner connected with, directly or indirectly, participation as an attendee at the Annual Gala. Attendees shall defend, hold harmless and indemnify the Helping Hand Foundation, its Board of Directors, officers, employees, agents and other volunteers, from and against all damages, claims, liabilities, causes of action, judgments, settlements, costs and expenses (including, but not limited to, reasonable expert witness and attorney fees) that may at any time arise or be claimed by any person as a result of bodily injury, death or property damage, or as a result of any other claim or cause of action of any nature whatsoever, arising from or in any manner connected with, directly or indirectly, attendance at the Annual Gala.
